

I WON'T TAKE YOU HOME AGAIN, KATHLEEN

MIDDLE INSTR.
BREAKDOWN

Now the sun is blindin' your eyes
And I can't take anymore of your surprises
I won't take you home again Kathleen
Now the dawnlight gleams in your hair
But I can't see anywhere left for us to go
I won't take you home again, Kathleen

I spent my whole life waitin' for you
But just like the D train
You show up at the most unusual times
I can't take anymore
You're drivin' me out of my mind

C-C-G-G

You come on like a beam of light
Straight from paradise or
Out of the arms of my best friend, Kevin
Better to rule in hell than serve you in heaven

And all those days out at Rockaway
You left me waitin' like a spare prick at a weddin' ah, it's too upsettin' to think about what You were up to with Kevin
But let me touch your face on last time
Then I'm outya here or outa my mind
Kathleen, it's been a dream
But look out - your nightmare is comin'
