verse

Em C
I don't know why it all fell apart
G Em
I was too young, you were too smart
C Bm7 C D-C-D-C
I guess you knew it was goin' nowhere right from the start
Em C
But your memory brings a smile
G Em
And every once in a little old while
C A7 D
I remember your sheer craziness electrifying my heart

chorus

Em C G Em
That summer dress and your kiss of fire at my door
G Em C D G
That summer dress, it spent most of August on my floor
Em C G Em
That summer dress and your spark of desire - at my door
G Em C D G C
That summer dress, it spent most of August on my floor

Chords C Bm Em Am C Bm Em C-Bm-Am-Em

C Bm Em Am C Bm

I know your sensibility
You always wanted to be free
No one was gonna hold you baby and I wasn't the one to try Hey I think of you now and then
Wonder if you ever found the one
Who could satisfy your electrifying desire
