 Met a lady on Bourbon Street

 She was dark and she was beautiful for god's sakes keep your hands off my voodoo girl what have you done to my voodoo girl

Marie Laveau was the lady in question
 I fell beneath her crescent spell
 Nights spent drinkin' in the Quarter
 Soon turned into a livin' hell

She said she knew how to protect me
 From all the secrets of my past
 But New York is not scorned so easy
 Iceman tracked me down at last

Candle waver on the altar
Marie, she dance on the naked floor
Flame light up her sacred body
I hear the key turn in the door

I scream at her 'you have betrayed me'
The hurt explodes inside her eyes
She throw herself across my body
The bullet choke her voodoo cries

A raven rises from her body
The Iceman stares in disbelief
I crash through her garret window
And race like fire down Bourbon Street

ISRAELITES

Get up every morning same thing for breakfast
So that every mouth can be fed
Woh - oh - we Israelites

Walk on a peacemarch it's all about dreaming
Without justice there can be no sleep

Shut them a tear up twenty year ago
I don't want to end up like Bobby Sands

After this life there got to be some livin'
No god can tell me that this is all there is

I don't want your handouts and don't patronise me
My father was blind but I choose to see

I look in your eyes but only hatred I see
I refuse to be a slave in my own country

Get up every morning same thing for breakfast
So that every mouth can be fed
Woh - oh - we Israelites
