Additional lyrics

2. I know that you think that I'm out of my head
'Cause I haven't been givin' you the love that I should
I just sit here playin' his old 45's
Wishing to hell that Bobby was alive
He's still out there singin' "I fought the law"
But no one is sayin' exactly what they saw
If I can't find out I never will recover
I gotta know who killed Bobby Fuller?

3. I know it's an obsession but what can I do
Oh darlin', I'm still so in love with you
There's a señorita down in El Paso
I know that she's got some of the answers
She's older now and ready to speak
So tell your dentist to cap someone else's teeth
[If] we can't be friends we can at least be lovers
I gotta know who killed Bobby Fuller?
