 Bm B7 G A
Their lawyers get hung juries when they swear that they're insane

I tried to write your story but I had to change the names
You were implicatin' priests and presidents
And no one would believe me, the said I should be ashamed
The details didn't make any sense
But I had you followed secretly by the CIA
They couldn't take the pressure so you blew them all away

So, so long, girl, it's been vivid, I'll see you around
On the boulevard of al your broken dreams
And I'll stop to share a kiss with you, a friendly one of course
With your new boyfriend and your new identity
And we'll share a polite word or two, I'll shake his erotic hand
As it holds yours and you hold mine and here we go again
