The Ceiling and the Stars

Intro: C# E, F# E F# D
D C# B E D C# B A D E

Intro: 2 instrumental choruses

Chorus

A F#m
All will be well and all will be well
D Bm A
And all manner of things will be well
F#m
Go and hide your scars
D E7 A F#m D E
Between the ceiling and the stars

C#maj7 F# G#
I know you're worried and you fear
C# F# G#
The earth beneath your feet can't bear
C#maj7 F# G#
The cracks and compromise of guilt
C# F# G#
That daily shake all that you've built
Em G
And though the darkness rushes in
A D E
These days will pass and soon – again

Chorus plus B G E B G F#

I know the lies have multiplied
And magnified before your eyes
And everything that you fought for
Has been destroyed by fear and rumor
You stand alone, your friends have gone
Nothin' left to do but carry on

Chorus then two instrumental choruses
